Attention: Property Owners…

Is it time to break up with your lender?

Did you know that lenders often reward new customers with better rates, while loyal customers like you pay more?

This hidden cost is known as a 'loyalty tax' - and it could be costing you thousands!

But the good news? There's an easy way to fight back…

01. Make Up – Stay & Save!

> REPRICE with your Existing Lender

Use our FREE RateTraker tool to instantly check if your lender is overcharging you.

If they are, RateTraker will automatically submit a reprice request asking your lender to 'make up' by lowering your loan rates!
